"When Gigi, our 2.5-pound Yorkie, snuck an olive pit off the table one day, no one noticed. But soon she started throwing up. At the vet, it took lots of tests to find the olive pit. She needed surgery to get it out.

We were really worried for our little Gigi, and we were thrilled when she came back home. We were so grateful we had ASPCA Pet Health Insurance.

We would definitely recommend it because it's not just the wellness visits you have to be prepared for, but the unplanned 'olive pits' of the pet world."

-David S. - Boston, MA

We reimbursed David S. $2,548.02 for Gigi's accident. With a comparable plan from one of our competitors, he only would have received $1,363.

What is pet health insurance?
Pet insurance helps you afford your veterinary bills, so you can avoid a difficult financial decision about that special member of your family.

Why do I need it?
Veterinary costs are rising, especially as more treatments become available for animals. We can help you manage these costs.

How does it work?

- 1. Get Treatment at ANY licensed vet, including specialists and emergency care, in the US or Canada and pay for services.
- 2. File a Claim using our simple form with your receipts.
- 3. Get Reimbursed 80% of usual and customary covered charges after a low $100 annual deductible per pet.

What is Continuing Care?
Select our inexpensive Continuing Care coverage option with Levels 2, 3, or 4 for additional coverage of ongoing conditions. These are injuries or illnesses that need care across multiple plan periods.
